

2024 Youth Art Month Flag Design Competition

THEME: “Dream In Art “

Every year, each state will select a winning flag design, which will be made into a flag & displayed at the NAEA national convention.

September is the perfect time to start planning how your art classes will participate in the flag design competition. The winning flag will represent Indiana at the NAEA convention.

TO ENTER:

- Make copies of the template on the following page. Students may use specialized media paper as long as it is the size of the template.
- Select the 4 best designs from your school.
- Bring artwork to the fall convention on 11/4/23 OR MAIL TO:

Esmeralda Schill
PO BOX 312
Windfall, IN 46076

* mail if only you are not attending fall convention

ENTRIES SHOULD BE:

- Finished in color
- Contain a theme that represents Indiana & this year's theme
- Youth Art Month phrase included in the design

This year, all students in grades K-12 may compete in the flag design but each teacher is limited to FOUR entries.

Teachers attending the fall convention will judge the flags & our state winner will be announced at the convention award dinner. We are looking forward to admitting entries from all of our regions this year.

Let's design the best Indiana flag for 2024!
