

2025 Youth Art Month Flag Design Competition

THEME: “Healing Through Color“

Something new this year is there will be TWO winning flag designs. Starting for the contest in 2024, there will be two flag design categories by age- K-5th and 6-12th

The winning design from K-5 category will be made into a flag that will hang at the State House for the entirety of Youth Art Month. The winning design from the 6-12th category will be made into a flag and will represent Indiana at the NAEA convention.

September is the perfect time to start planning how your art students will participate in the flag design competition!

TO ENTER:

- Make copies of the template on the following page. Students may use specialized media paper as long as it is the size of the template.
- Select the 6 best designs from your school.
- Bring artwork to the fall convention on 11/15/24 OR MAIL TO:
Elyse Abbott
9246 Middlebury Way
Camby, IN 46113

* mail by November 9th only if you are not attending fall convention*

ENTRIES SHOULD BE:

- Finished in color
- Contain a theme that represents Indiana & this year’s theme
- Youth Art Month phrase and “Indiana” included in the design

All students in grades K-12 may compete in the flag design contest, but each teacher is limited to SIX entries this year.

Teachers attending the fall convention will judge the flags & our winners will be announced at the convention awards dinner. We are looking forward to admitting entries from all of our districts this year. Let's design the best Indiana flag for 2024!
